FRI 11:00-1:30 10/11-11/15 6 WEEKS

WHY PAINT A SERIES?

PATTY FLAUTO

$240

Painting in a series helps develop a cohesive group of work. Building a series is a commitment to a theme, subject matter or color palette. It's a great way to grow as an artist. This class is a (3) 4-hour session. Each week the instructor will demo a technique to consider for your series. Instructor will be using acrylics and abstract painting as a starting point. Your series can be anything you like. This is a guided studio course with minimal lectures. This will allow plenty of time for painting and discussion. Intermediate level-some experience using paint. Supply list will be provided prior to class. Class is located on the second floor.

TUES 1:00-5:00PM 10/29-11/12 3 Weeks

REALISM IN WATERCOLOR

LISHA NASIPAK

$200

Think you can't achieve realism in watercolor? Well think again! Even beginners can achieve realistic paintings using my glazing technique. Paint the fruit that looks good enough to eat or a flower that you can almost smell. Become comfortable using this unpredictable method and learn to make friends with the water. Take home a painting in the very first class! Supply list will be provided prior to class.

TUES 4:00-6:00 11/19-12/17 5 weeks

Drawing

SKETCH YOUR DAY

CAMILLE TULCEWICZ

$60

Do you want to improve your drawing skills? Good sketches lead to good drawings! All you need are a couple of pencils, an eraser, and a sketchbook of any kind. We'll gather as a friendly group at the Fuller Studio and I'll introduce you to some sketching exercises in graphite pencil. We'll disperse and wander the lovely BAYarts campus where you'll sketch the assignment. Next, we'll come back to the studio to discuss and share your results. You'll get another assignment for round #2, for more sketching, discussing and sharing. Round #3 will wrap up with some quick sketches. It will be a mindful, meaningful and relaxing day, in which you'll build your drawing skills with a little bit of exercise. Feel free to bring snacks, drinks or sample some local fare. In case of bad weather, all sketching strategies will adapt to indoor subjects. Room is wheelchair accessible.
